Title: Romans: The Home of Christ and the Spirit, Pt 4: “No Condemnation and No Separation” – Romans 8:31-39

Big Idea: God is for you because he loves you, and nothing can separate you from his love.

Read Romans 8:31-39

What part of the sermon stood out to you, and why?

Are there any questions that you have?

If God is for us, who can be against us?

- Do you struggle to think that God is for you?
- How does knowing that God would give his son for you help comfort you in hard times?

Who shall bring any charge against God's elect? Who is to condemn?

- How does the fact that God justifies us answer the question that no one can (successfully) bring a charge against a child of God?
- In verse 34, Paul gives four answers to the question who is to condemn? Which of the 4 answers most resonates with you and why?

Who shall separate us from the love of Christ?

- Do hard times ever make you doubt God's love for you? Share a specific time with the group and what you learned from it.

It is in all these things (i.e. all the challenges and suffering in life) that we are more than conquerors through Jesus who loved us.

- How does this refute the prosperity gospel?
- We don't conquer apart from Christ. What are some ways we can stay connected to him? (See John 15:1-17)

Spend some time praying and thanking God for ways he has loved you through specific trials.

NEXT STEP TAKEAWAYS

- If you never have, turn to God and embrace his love
- Next time you face a trial or temptation, remind yourself that Jesus is praying for you.
- Repent of any areas in your life where you might be doubting God's love for you

- Consider if God might be calling you to GO. If nothing can separate us from his love, might he be stirring in you a desire to take a leap of faith to take the message of his love to the nations?
